CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

A. Conclusion

Based on the result of data analysis, the researcher concluded:

1. Eleventh grade students of Senior High School 1 Toapaya Bintan Regency taught by using Start Simple Stories (SSS) Method got better score of reading comprehension than those taught without using Start Simple Stories (SSS) Method.
2. Using Start Simple Stories (SSS) Method did not give significant effect on students' reading comprehension of eleventh grade student at State Senior High School 1 Toapaya Bintan Regency. This method had a small effect on students' reading comprehension.

B. Suggestion

After conducting the research, the writer would like to give some suggestions to the teacher and the other writer as followed:

1. It is suggested for the English teachers at State Senior High School 1 Toapaya Bintan Regency to don't apply this method in teaching reading skill because this method cannot help the students to be familiar with the text they are going to read.
2. It is suggested for the students to don't try to use this method before reading an English text, because it cannot help them in improving their reading comprehension.
