- 5.1.2 From 5 components of word order, the subject component has the highest correlation with students' ability in writing descriptive paragraph. With 0.882 at significant of 0.01, and it means that there is very strong correlation.

5.2 Suggestion

Based on the conclusion above, the writer proposes some suggestions as follows:

5.2.1 Suggestion to the teacher

For the teacher is suggested that writing ability has some components to be mastered. Before teaching the specific material of writing, the teacher should consider the features which are used in writing. The features such as grammar, language feature, and vocabulary are essential in writing, therefore, approaching the students to understand these features may help to improve their writing ability.

5.2.2 Suggestion to the students

Learning the basic form in word order is important. As for the students, learning the basic word order is crucial in order to improve their writing ability. Even using the pattern of S+V+O or S+V+C several times may cause the sentences become redundant, but as beginner writer it is important to avoid global errors in writing such as fragment sentences and ambiguity of meaning.
