B. The Suggestion

Based on research conclusion above, it is known that using Cooperative script strategy gives significant effect on the students' reading comprehension in descriptive text.

1. Suggestion for Teacher

There is some suggestion offered according to the result of this research, as follows:

- a. English teacher could use the cooperative script strategy to improve students' scores especially in reading comprehension. The researcher argues about factors that affect students' lack of value in learning English, Namely:
 - 1) Hour subjects which were less affective students' lack of value in daylight between 11.00-12.00 o'clock time when students were distracted and do not focus on learning English.
 - 2) The levels of students' abilities are varied.
- b. The teacher should have ability to guide and construct creative learning for students.
- c. Schools should encourage more students' awareness about the importance of reading for their life.
