A. Suggestion

Based on the conclusion of the research above, it is known that I-Search Procedure Method in teaching writing can affect the writing ability of students, so that I-Search Procedure Method is one of the choices by English teacher to improve students' ability in writing analytical exposition paragraph. English teacher should know how to teach writing by using I-Search Procedure Method. Besides that, teacher should use many ways to encourage the students' writing ability as in the following:

- a. The teacher trains students to write a text during teaching and learning process.
- b. The teachers can encourage students' awareness about the importance of writing for their life.
- c. The teachers should construct creative and enjoyable learning for students.
- d. The teacher should support their techniques by using interesting media.

The teacher makes writing as habitual activities for students in the school. In addition, Senior High School of Muhammadiyah Bangkinang should keep establishing the programs that have been done from several years ago especially for English lesson such English Day, English Club, speech and publishing article or poems in the school because those programs are really helpful for the students to study English
