

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

A. Conclusion

Referring to the data analysis and data presentation explained at the chapter IV, finally the writer concludes the answers of the formulation of the problems:

1. Students' speaking ability taught by using just-a-minute (JAM) game at SMAN 1 Lubuk Dalam is classified into Good category.
2. Students' speaking ability taught without using just-a-minute (JAM) game at SMAN 1 Lubuk Dalam is classified into Less category.
3. There is a significant difference between the students' speaking ability taught by using just-a-minute (JAM) game and without using just-a-minute (JAM) game of the second year students at SMAN 1 Lubuk Dalam Siak regency. The H_0 is rejected and H_a is accepted because It is proved by the finding of t-test is less than t_{table} at 5% level of significance, while t-test is greater than t_{table} at 1% level of significance. It clear that null hypothesis (H_0) is rejected, while alternative hypothesis (H_a) is accepted, and the students who are taught by using just-a-minute (JAM) game have better score than who are not taught by using it. It clear that there is a significant difference between the students' speaking ability taught and without using just-a-minute (JAM) game at SMAN 1 Lubuk Dalam Siak regency.

B. Suggestion

Pertaining to the research finding, the writer would like to give some suggestion to the teacher, students and the next researcher.

1. Suggestion for the Teacher

In the teaching and learning process, the teacher should be creative in selecting the game that can be used in English teaching in order to make the students interested and not bored, and the teacher should support the game used by using interesting topic that is suitable to the students' level and presents the lesson objective clearly and explains some difficult vocabulary in order to make the students motivated in learning activity.

2. Suggestion for the Students

The students have to have hard effort to improve their speaking ability. Because it will be the first product which shows their quality in Learning English and the students should pay more attention to the lesson that has been explained by the teacher.

3. Suggestion for Next Researcher

Next researcher should give contribution in conducting the research especially about speaking ability. The researchers are expected to find new strategies, techniques, methods, and approaches in order to make students feel enjoyable in learning English and the researchers should be serious to do the research, because the process of the research will influence the result.
