Dear Dr,

I am sending the manuscript.
Please lets me know if there is need to be revised.
But, hopefully your production team could format the paper according to the journal format. I am very grateful if this manuscript could be accepted and publish in this journal.

Best regards,

E. Erwan

Review of International Geographical Education Online (RIGEO) is a double-blind, peer-reviewed, open-access, and research journal aimed at publishing scientific papers based on rigorous methodologies directed to contribute to the development of the field of geography education and social studies education. RIGEO publishes original research articles either using quantitative or qualitative methodologies which represent a significant contribution to the current knowledge. This includes a vast range of empirical studies including the validation or adaptation of measurement instruments.

Authors are invited to submit the original research papers in all levels of education systems from pre-primary to upper university, related to following topics. However, this is not an inclusive list; Geography education, Social studies education, Environmental education, Earth sciences education, Geology education, Biology education Papers for the Regular Issue should not be more than 20 pages including references, figures, and tables, and should include an abstract of approximately 250 words.

All papers must have: English language, Times New roman, 12 pt font size, single spacing, and APA referencing style. Acceptance of papers will take approximately 1 week from submission and publication time for papers will be around 2-3 weeks. Following are important dates to remember:

Submissions can be done through emailing at sectioneditor@rigeo.org
