Dear Imron Rosidi:

We have reached a decision regarding your submission to Jurnal Komunikasi: Malaysian Journal of Communication, "Negotiating Representations of Korean TV Dramas among Indonesian Muslim Youth".

Our decision is: Revisions Required

Please log in to the system to view reviewers comments and address them before uploading your revised manuscript at the author's section in the same entry. You may refer to the "User Guides" section for detailed steps.

A Revision form is attached with this email. Once you have uploaded the manuscript, please send a notification email to me and attach the completed Revision form in the email.

Please also include 1 citation from Jurnal Komunikasi if you haven't done so already.

There is a fee charged for each article published. Please make sure you make the necessary payment once the revised manuscript is accepted for publication.

Thank you again for your submission. We look forward to receiving your revised copy soon.

Part 1: Reviewer's comments. Please write comments in the spaces provided.

Introduction

Not very clear. The author needs to be very specific - what kind of representation? Islamic values? masculinities? moralities?

Literature Review:

The fear of cultural imperialism has led to the notion of cultural protectionism - there is no clear review of literature in the context of Indonesia.

Methodology:

There is no clear statement about the employment of methodology in this study - quantitative or qualitative?

Findings & Interpretations:

Acceptable - if there are details about context of study in this article.

Discussion:

Acceptable - if there are details about context of study in this article.

References/ Bibliography (APA system):

Acceptable

Title, Abstracts & Keywords (articles written in Bahasa Melayu must also include abstract & keywords written in English):

Need a Malay version of title

Additional Comments:

This article needs major revision - no context of study and research design is quite poorly written.
