REVIEWER 1

- English grammatical errors are easily found in the abstract and manuscript.
- All the text must be written in English without mixing with Bahasa Indonesia. Except for references, it should be marked “in Bahasa Indonesia”
- State the objectives of this study in the abstract and introduction/background
- State the contribution or benefit of this study on the academic science or its application in the background and abstract.
- Give the clear distinguish between this study and the previous studies and originality of this study.
- Provide the results and evaluation accordance on your objectives.
- Conclusions should correspond to the objectives and evaluation of the results.

REVIEWER 2

- This is an interesting research.
- The English must be improved.
- The organization is a problem; the analysis should be after the data.
- Check the font size.
