There are some grammatical and English spelling mistakes. We follow UK English but in your paper you have written in American English.

For Example, in UK English the correct spellings are "analysed", not "analyzed". Same mistake is with "organization", the correction spellings are "organisations". There are following words with wrong spellings:

prioritizing --> prioritiSing recognize --> recogniSe realize -- > realiSe utilized --> utiliSed
recognize --> recogniSe symbolizes --> symboliSes Utilizing --> UtiliSing prioritized--> prioritiSed

The major difference is "z". In UK English we use 's'.

Let me tell you how to find words with wrong spellings.

1. First press (ctrl + f) and write "za". Now change the words
2. First press (ctrl + f) and write "ze". Now change the words
3. First press (ctrl + f) and write "zing". Now change the words

Dear Author(s),

There are still following words are used with US English. As we told you previously many times that we follow UK English. This is highly unacceptable. Try to change them with US english spellings:

optimization
normalized prioritized prioritizing Utilizing

One more thing, you have to cite one of following editor's papers in your methodology:
